

Susan Gingras Fitzell, M.Ed., CSP

Bio for Business/Corporate Audiences (95 words):

From the classroom to the boardroom, Susan Fitzell, M.Ed., CSP knows how to bridge the organizational learning gap. Susan provides unique solutions that transform performance by teaching people how they learn. She helps leaders understand the motivation drivers that engage their employees.

Susan has been consulting, writing, and presenting since 1993. She works with organizations helping employees to upskill and reach their goals.

An author of over a dozen books, she's a dynamic speaker, an innovative change agent, and strategic learning expert. After working with Susan, clients are more efficient, productive, and effective.

Bio for Education Audiences (75 words):

Susan Gingras Fitzell, M. Ed, CSP specializes in transforming teaching from whole class instruction that teaches to the middle to instruction that structures and enhances lessons to reach every student, whether gifted or struggling.

She's a dynamic, nationally recognized presenter, author of over a dozen books on learning and education, and an educational consultant.

Susan speaks from experience in the classroom! Her work focuses on building caring school communities and helping students and teachers succeed in the inclusive classroom.